

Our client is seeking a stores supervisor - the successful candidate will be reporting to the warehouse manager and deputising when required.

You will supervising 5 staff, assisting in providing a cost effective utilisation of warehouse and storage space, ensuring order schedules, low level stock reports and other data analysis is accurate and a correct level of stock is maintained, develop a culture of continual improvement, auditing, supervise staff in delivering a world class stores service to the production team and being cost effective.

You will need excellent people management skills, proven track record of stock control, desire to develop in a continually improving organisation and evidence of belonging to a successful team previously.